

May 2024

Youth researchers lead prevention campaign against substance misuse

Through their research, EYE for Prevention youth leaders have developed strategies such as positive coping, culturally relevant healing, art programming and other approaches for preventing substance misuse.

Read more

Tips for staying safe this summer season

"Making time for outdoor, summertime activities is a great way for families to stay healthy and have fun," said Injury Prevention Coordinator Margaret Rose. "It is also equally important to keep in mind that certain injuries become more widespread in the summer months, particularly among children."

Read more

Spiritual care offers healing beyond medicine

Denver Health's Spiritual Care Services team supports the emotional needs of patients, families and staff. In the hospital's interfaith chapel, visitors are invited to add messages to the prayer tree, a way of helping patients and families heal in times of pain.

Read more

Denver Health mission runs in the family

It's been 45 years since Phil Goodman's family tree was planted at Denver Health, and more than a dozen family members spanning three generations have worked there.

Read more

Bike Team's care stands out in a crowd

"It's just a very cool opportunity to do something different outside of being on an ambulance," said Bike Team member Paolo Siccardi, who has been with the Paramedic Division for five years and, like others on the team, enjoys the opportunity to combine his enthusiasm for helping others with his love of cycling.

Read more

DID YOU KNOW?

Denver Health Pediatrics at Denver Public Schools, better known as school-based health centers, remain open during summer. Watch the video to learn more about SBHCs and see how Juan got help for his asthma so he could get back to what he loves: playing soccer. Click the button for a PDF flyer with information on scheduling an appointment.

Learn more

Careers at Denver Health

Make an Appointment

Sign up for MyChart

CLICK HERE FOR A PDF VERSION OF THIS NEWSLETTER.

